

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Could you please tell me something about family? What place does the family have in God's plan of creation?

- A) A man and a woman who are married to each other form, together with their children, a family. God wills that the love of the spouses, if possible, should produce children. These children, who are entrusted to the protection and care of their parents, have the same dignity as their parents.
- B) The family doesn't have any role in God's plan of creation.
- C) Our Almighty Father left for government of countries to determinate God's plan for human family.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

During one of our family dinners this question came up: To whom does the Fourth Commandment refer to, and what does it require of us?

- A) The Fourth Commandment refers, just to God the Father, just to God the Father.
- B) The Fourth Commandment refers in the first place to the Prime Minister of Canada.
- C) The Fourth Commandment refers in the first place to one's physical parents, but also to the people to whom we owe our life, our well-being, our security, and our faith. (CCC 2196-2200, 2247-2248 What we owe in the first place to our parents - namely love, gratitude, and respect - should also govern our relations to people who guide us and are there for us. There are many people who represent for us a God-given, natural, and good authority: foster or step-parents, older relatives and ancestors, educators, teachers, employers, superiors. In the spirit of the Fourth Commandment we should do them justice. In the broadest sense, this commandment applies even to our duties as citizens to the Government.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

During one of our family dinners this question came up: To whom does the Fourth Commandment refer to, and what does it require of us?

A) The Fourth Commandment refers, just to God the Father.

B) The Fourth Commandment refers in the first place to the Prime Minister of Canada.

C) The Fourth Commandment refers in the first place to one's physical parents, but also to the people to whom we owe our life, our well-being, our security, and our faith. (CCC 2196-2200, 2247-2248) What we owe in the first place to our parents - namely love, gratitude, and respect - should also govern our relations to people who guide us and are there for us. There are many people who represent for us a God-given, natural, and good authority: foster or step-parents, older relatives and ancestors, educators, teachers, employers, superiors. In the spirit of the Fourth Commandment we should do them justice. In the broadest sense, this commandment applies even to our duties as citizens to the Government.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Could you please tell me something about family? What place does the family have in God's plan of creation?

A) A man and a woman who are married to each other form, together with their children, a family. God wills that the love of the spouses, if possible, should produce children. These children, who are entrusted to the protection and care of their parents, have the same dignity as their parents.

B) The family doesn't have any role in God's plan of creation.

C) Our Almighty Father left for government of countries to determinate God's plan for human family.