

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Another very important question. Can a handicapped child be aborted?

A) Yes. The Church gives specific guidelines.

B) The Church doesn't talk about that.

C) No. Aborting a handicapped child is always a serious crime, even if it is done with the intention of sparing that person suffering later on.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

I have a question about abortion. Why is abortion unacceptable at any phase in the development of the embryo?

A) God-given human life is God's property; it is from the first moment of its existence and not under the control of any human being. "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you" (Jer 1:5). (CCC 2270-2274, 23222) God alone is Lord over life and death. Not even "my" life belongs to me. Every child, from the moment of conception on, has a right to life. From his earliest beginnings an unborn human being is a separate person, and no one can infringe upon his rights, not the State, nor doctor, and not even the mother or father. The Church's clarity about this is not a lack of compassion; she means, rather, to point out the irreparable harm that is inflicted on the child who is killed in abortion and on his parents and on society as a whole. Protecting innocent human life is one of the noblest tasks of the State. If a State evades this responsibility, it undermines the foundations of a rule of law.

B) The Church gives full freedom to the mother. It is up to the mother to make the decision.

C) We should not talk about that at the church.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

I have a question about abortion. Why is abortion unacceptable at any phase in the development of the embryo?

A) God-given human life is God's property; it is from the first moment of its existence and not under the control of any human being. "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you" (Jer 1:5). (CCC 2270-2274, 23222) God alone is Lord over life and death. Not even "my" life belongs to me. Every child, from the moment of conception on, has a right to life. From his earliest beginnings an unborn human being is a separate person, and no one can infringe upon his rights, not the State, nor doctor, and not even the mother or father. The Church's clarity about this is not a lack of compassion; she means, rather, to point out the irreparable harm that is inflicted on the child who is killed in abortion and on his parents and on society as a whole. Protecting innocent human life is one of the noblest tasks of the State. If a State evades this responsibility, it undermines the foundations of a rule of law.

B) The Church gives full freedom to the mother. It is up to the mother to make the decision.

C) We should not talk about that at the church.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Another very important question. Can a handicapped child be aborted?

A) Yes. The Church gives specific guidelines.

B) The Church doesn't talk about that.

C) No. Aborting a handicapped child is always a serious crime, even if it is done with the intention of sparing that person suffering later on.