

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Once, we were talking about death and dying and my question is: How do Christians assist somebody who is dying?

- A) Christians do not leave a dying person alone. They help him so that he can die in faith-filled trust, in dignity and peace. They pray with him and take care that the sacraments are administered to him at the right time. (CCC 2299)
- B) Assisting somebody who is dying is not the role of Christians but the role of Government.
- C) Christians have an obligation only to assist their closest family.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Once I had a discussion with my children. I wanted to explain to them my funeral wishes. Could you answer this question for me: How do Christians treat the corpse of someone who has died?

- A) There is no teaching or tradition of the Church about treating the corpse of someone who had died. The Government has very strict rules about it.
- B) Christians treat the corpse of a dead person respectfully and lovingly, realizing that God has called him to the resurrection of the dead.
- C) Christians don't care about the corpse of a dead person, for us the most important is only salvation.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Once I had a discussion with my children. I wanted to explain to them my funeral wishes. Could you answer this question for me: How do Christians treat the corpse of someone who has died?

- A) There is no teaching or tradition of the Church about treating the corpse of someone who had died. The Government has very strict rules about it.
- B) Christians treat the corpse of a dead person respectfully and lovingly, realizing that God has called him to the resurrection of the dead.
- C) Christians don't care about the corpse of a dead person, for us the most important is only salvation.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Once, we were talking about death and dying and my question is: How do Christians assist somebody who is dying?

- A) Christians do not leave a dying person alone. They help him so that he can die in faith-filled trust, in dignity and peace. They pray with him and take care that the sacraments are administered to him at the right time. (CCC 2299)
- B) Assisting somebody who is dying is not the role of Christians but the role of Government.
- C) Christians have an obligation only to assist their closest family.