

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

My question is simple today. What is love?

- A) Love is a wonderful feeling.
- B) Love is the free self-giving of the heart.
- C) Love doesn't exist. It is just a romantic expression.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Well... I do not want to be called sexist, or by another name, but I am wondering. Is there a priority of one sex over another?

A) No. God endowed men and women with identical dignity as persons. (CCC 2331, 2335) Both men and women are human beings created in God's image and children of God redeemed by Jesus Christ. It is just as unchristian as it is inhumane to discriminate unjustly against someone because he is male or female. Equal dignity and equal rights, nevertheless, do not mean uniformity. The sort of egalitarianism that ignores the specific character of a man or a woman contradicts God's plan of creation.

B) Yes. Of course, everybody knows that the Church says man has a priority over a woman. Adam was created first.

C) Yes. Of course, everybody knows that the Church says woman has a priority over a man. Mary was the Mother of Jesus Christ.
