

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

One of our cousins is getting married at the Church and one of my children asked me this question: What are the essential elements of Christian marriage?

A) Unity: Marriage is a covenant that by its very nature brings about bodily, intellectual and spiritual union between a man and a woman; Indissolubility: Marriage lasts "until death do us part"; Openness to offspring: Every marriage must be open to children; Commitment to the spouse's welfare.

(CCC 2360-2361, 2397 -2398) If one of the two spouses deliberately excludes one of the four points listed above at the time of their wedding, the Sacrament of Matrimony does not take place

B) Everything is changing right now and the Catholic Church doesn't talk about the essential elements.

C) In our diocese there is only one essential element of Christian marriage, people have to know each other.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

This is a question of my teenage daughter: What significance does the sexual encounter have within marriage?

A) The sexual encounter doesn't have any significance within marriage.

B) According to God's will, husband and wife should encounter each other in bodily union so as to be united ever more deeply with one another in love and to allow children to proceed from their love.

C) According to God's will, husband and wife should encounter each other in bodily union so as only to allow children to proceed from their love.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

This is a question of my teenage daughter: What significance does the sexual encounter have within marriage?

A) The sexual encounter doesn't have any significance within marriage.

B) According to God's will, husband and wife should encounter each other in bodily union so as to be united ever more deeply with one another in love and to allow children to proceed from their love.

C) According to God's will, husband and wife should encounter each other in bodily union so as only to allow children to proceed from their love.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

One of our cousins is getting married at the Church and one of my children asked me this question: What are the essential elements of Christian marriage?

A) Unity: Marriage is a covenant that by its very nature brings about bodily, intellectual and spiritual union between a man and a woman; Indissolubility: Marriage lasts "until death do us part"; Openness to offspring: Every marriage must be open to children; Commitment to the spouse's welfare.

(CCC 2360-2361, 2397 -2398) If one of the two spouses deliberately excludes one of the four points listed above at the time of their wedding, the Sacrament of Matrimony does not take place

B) Everything is changing right now and the Catholic Church doesn't talk about the essential elements.

C) In our diocese there is only one essential element of Christian marriage, people have to know each other.