

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Could you tell me please: What does the Eighth Commandment require of us?

- A) The Eighth Commandment doesn't have any significant meaning any more. The Second Vatican Council talks about this very clearly.
- B) The Eighth Commandment teaches us not to lie. Lying means consciously and intentionally speaking or acting against the truth. Someone who lies deceives himself and misleads others who have a right to know the full truth of a matter.
- C) The Eighth Commandment teaches us to be nice to others even if we have to consciously and intentionally speak or act against the truth.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Last week we were talking about corporal works of mercy. What are the "spiritual works of mercy"?

- A) The spiritual works of mercy are: to instruct the ignorant, to counsel the doubtful, comfort the sorrowful, admonish the sinner, bear wrongs patiently, forgive all injuries, and pray for the living and the dead.
- A) The spiritual works of mercy are: to instruct the ignorant, to counsel the doubtful, comfort the sorrowful, admonish the sinner, bear wrongs patiently, not forgive, and pray for the friends.
- B) The spiritual works of mercy are: don't care for truth, to counsel the doubtful, look for power, admonish the sinner, bear wrongs patiently, forgive all injuries, and pray for the living and the dead.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Last week we were talking about corporal works of mercy. What are the "spiritual works of mercy"?

A) The spiritual works of mercy are: to instruct the ignorant, to counsel the doubtful, comfort the sorrowful, admonish the sinner, bear wrongs patiently, forgive all injuries, and pray for the living and the dead.

A) The spiritual works of mercy are: to instruct the ignorant, to counsel the doubtful, comfort the sorrowful, admonish the sinner, bear wrongs patiently, not forgive, and pray for the friends.

B) The spiritual works of mercy are: don't care for truth, to counsel the doubtful, look for power, admonish the sinner, bear wrongs patiently, forgive all injuries, and pray for the living and the dead.

How well do you know the Catholic faith? Well, let's find out..."

Could you tell me please: What does the Eighth Commandment require of us?

A) The Eighth Commandment doesn't have any significant meaning any more. The Second Vatican Council talks about this very clearly.

B) The Eighth Commandment teaches us not to lie. Lying means consciously and intentionally speaking or acting against the truth. Someone who lies deceives himself and misleads others who have a right to know the full truth of a matter.

C) The Eighth Commandment teaches us to be nice to others even if we have to consciously and intentionally speak or act against the truth.