4th Sunday of Ordinary Time
January 29/30 2022

“There is a season for everything, a time for every occupation under heaven....” so says the writer of Ecclesiastes. Sadly, for me, and perhaps a few others at St. Rose of Lima, it’s a time for farewell. I’ve just spent a sentimental morning emptying out my office and trying to leave everything in order for Fr. Sean’s assumption of duties. In Fr. Sean you have a reliable and faithful pastoral administrator and I trust you will welcome and love him as you have me. In some ways it seems such a short time ago I received Church keys and an orientation from Fr. Marinaldo (May he RIP), and in some ways it seems an eon prior to the pandemic that took the life of my predecessor in Brazil. For the first time since my reception in the Catholic Church in 1999 I will be responsible for only one ministry position. At the outset, in order to feed a family of seven, economic necessity required a second part time income, but later it was imposed by the circumstantial needs of holy mother Church. I must say the limited focus on one parish will be a bit of a relief. To help my emotional readiness to ‘let go’, as Providence would have it, last Sunday I was stuck on the Sooke highway in a ‘tree service’ traffic jam anxiously trying to get to the 11 a.m. OLOR Mass on time. It didn’t happen and I anxiously uttered an extemporaneous prayer “Lord I’m too old for this!” As most of you know, St. Rose is my first Catholic parish as a priest (following 12 years of UVic/Camosun chaplaincy) and so many have been required to endure occasional bumpy liturgical/administrative firsts. I pray where I’ve failed pastorally or liturgically, the faithful would find it in their hearts to forgive and forget. Where we’ve succeeded in keeping the Church open and welcoming (especially these past two years) for the proclamation of the good news of Jesus’ gospel, and the worthy celebration of the sacraments, I am truly grateful. It’s especially good to part after receiving Debby Bovill into the Church through the sacraments of confirmation and holy communion. For all you who have collaborated with me on staff and in volunteer service, I am thankful. To all of you members of the Catholic family at St. Rose of Lima, I won’t be far away, and will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. May the Lord bless you and keep you and make his face to shine upon you, and give you peace,

Thinking of a time for everything, whether you like it or not, at OLOR it’s a time for more of me! We’ll leave it at that for now.

ANYONE THINKING OF THE 'LAST THINGS': DEATH, JUDGEMENT, HEAVEN, HELL?

WE MIGHT BE ABLE TO HELP! THE PARISH HAS TWO BURIAL PLOTS AT HATLEY (GARDEN OF THE GOSPELS) AVAILABLE FOR A DONATION. APPROXIMATE VALUE IS $4400.00 EACH.

PLEASE SPEAK WITH YOUR PASTOR IF INTERESTED...
